1 - Introduction and Overview

Employees may have access to, or come in contact with, information of a confidential nature. Their terms and conditions provide that except in the proper performance of their duties, employees are forbidden from disclosing, or making use of in any form whatsoever, such confidential information.

However, the law allows employees to make a 'protected disclosure' of certain information. In order to be 'protected', a disclosure must relate to a specific subject matter (clause 2) and the disclosure must also be made in an appropriate way (clause 3)

The centre is committed to be complaint with the Bribery Act 2010. The Company actively encourages a culture of honesty and openness and therefore all employees are required to bring up to their manager or other designated person any issue that, in the employees' opinion, might constitute bribery or corruption.

2 - Rationale and Scope

This policy covers all staff and students at the centre.

3 - Roles and responsibilities

Our SMT (senior management team) take overall responsibility for the provision of all policies within the centre. The directors, Mark Webber and Peter Carey, take overall responsibility for this policy, its application and sharing of appropriate information.

4 - How this Policy will be Communicated

- Our SMT will review policies and update as required
- Our policy will be made available on our website if applicable
- Our policy documents will form part of the induction for all staff to the centre
- When suitable, policies will be uploaded to OneFile resources for access by all appropriate users
- We may email policy updates to staff as required or use OneFile system announcements
- Staff should also review the employee handbook in relation to staff behaviour.

5 - Complaints

Any complaints in relation to this policy or relating to this policy or conflicts of interest should be made to the SMT or the Directors, who can be contacted via our Head Office on 08452235020 or email info@apprenticeship-centre.co.uk.

6 – Disclosure Procedure

Information which an employee reasonably believes, tends to show, one or more of the above should promptly be disclosed to the, Managing Director or SMT, so that any appropriate action can be taken.

If it is appropriate to make such disclosure to the manager, the employee should speak to the, Managing Director.

Employees with suffer no detriment of any sort for making such a disclosure in accordance with this procedure.

However, failure to follow this procedure may result in the disclosure of information losing it's 'protected status'

For further guidance in relation to this matter or concerning the use of the disclosure procedure generally, employees should speak in confidence to the Managing Director or SMT.

7 – Government Guidance Relating to Whistleblowing

You're a whistleblower if you're a worker and you report certain types of wrongdoing. This will usually be something you've seen at work - though not always.

The wrongdoing you disclose must be in the public interest. This means it must affect others, for example the general public.

As a whistleblower you're protected by law - you should not be treated unfairly or lose your job because you 'blow the whistle'.

You can raise your concern at any time about an incident that happened in the past, is happening now, or you believe will happen in the near future.

8 – Complaints that are Classed as Whistleblowing

You're protected by law if you report any of the following:

- a criminal offence, for example fraud
- someone's health and safety is in danger
- risk or actual damage to the environment
- a miscarriage of justice
- the company is breaking the law, for example does not have the right insurance
- you believe someone is covering up wrongdoing

9 – Complaints that Do Not Count as Whistleblowing

Personal grievances (for example bullying, harassment, discrimination) are not covered by whistleblowing law, unless your particular case is in the public interest.

Report these under your employer's grievance policy.

Contact the Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service \(Acas\) for help and advice on resolving a workplace dispute.
